

EVENTS

EVENT EXPERIENCE PLANNING FOR HNW FAMILIES

WWW.BVEVENTSGROUP.COM

What better way to facilitate the natural process of legacy than to meet socially as a family? BV Events creates event experiences in unique destinations for families. We provide the ideal opportunity for generations to interact and form bonds and even discover their place in the family business.

What we offer

Full event planning with unparalleled service, insider knowledge and exclusive perks

In-house Travel Advisor services to, from and within the chosen destination

Kids activities to keep the little ones interested and excited to meet other little ones

Bespoke experiences for the whole family along with tailored experiences for individuals who wish to incorporate me-time in addition to family-time

Optional business meeting coordination and educational programs

Where we go?

Everywhere!

We have been to countless destinations around the world both arranging events and exploring for pleasure. We've discovered the coral reefs of Bora Bora, the Caves of the Thousand Buddhas in Dunhuang, and the Northern Lights of Lapland to name a few. We are continually finding new destinations and experiences for our clients and no two trips are the same.

Who we are

Laurence Roussange

Founder of Voyager Traveling, is a travel advisor who has spent much of her life exploring the world. She was born in Paris, France and has lived and worked in more than 20 countries. The United States has been her home for the last two decades. Her love of travel began when she was a young adult working for an international resort company and continued with her last position as a Senior Manager of a successful Miami-based Destination Management Company - Some of her clients include Cartier, Dior, Givency, Hermes, LVMH and Montblanc. Today, Laurence focuses solely on planning extraordinary experiences for her clients to places she has been and new places she wishes to know.

*Susie
Belanger*

Founder of Belavie, has managed legal marketing and events for international law firms and wealth management organizations for nearly 15 years. Some of her clients include Baker & McKenzie, Montblanc Belavie Voyager was created to fill a need voiced by advisors to business families and family-owned businesses - "the most successful HNW families meet socially on a regular basis." Event experience planning for HNW families fills this need and combines Susie's wealth management event planning experience with travel. She has an MBA in International Business from the University of Miami. Susie splits her time between Massachusetts and Florida.

Privacy

We understand that family affairs for HNW families and individuals often involve sensitive information. Discretion is a top priority for us at BV Events.

Pricing

Basic Event Planning pricing is 20% of the overall cost of the event.

If you require personal travel services, BV Events Travel Advisory can help.

Where in the world would you like to go? BV Events will take you (and your family) there.

Contact Us:

BV Events HNW Family Event Planning

susie@BVEventsGroup.com
305.610.9455

BV Events Travel Advisory Services

laurence@BVEventsGroup.com
786.360.4891

